1.1.

Woman: Can I help you?

Boy: Yes, I'm looking for a present for my sister. She loves jewellery.

Woman: OK. What about a ring? Does she like wearing rings?

Boy: Not really. I was thinking about earrings.

Woman: OK. Something big or small? We have beautiful round silver earrings at a good price. And many others. Look.

Boy: Oh, these flower earrings look great! I'm sure she'll love them. How much are they?

Woman: £15.

Boy: Great! I'll take them.

Boy: I'd like a ticket to the museum, please.

Woman: The entrance to the museum is free unless you want to see the paintings exhibition on the 2nd floor.

Boy: I'd like that, too. I have a lot of time. How much do I have to pay for it?

Woman: Normal ticket is £5 but I think you're a student, right?

Boy: Right. Here's my student ID.

Woman: In that case, it's half price.

Boy: Great!

Man: And now the weather forecast for the weekend. Saturday will be sunny but cold, with temperatures of about 10 degrees. Be prepared for strong wind in the afternoon! It'll be a bit warmer on Sunday – about 14 degrees. There won't be any wind anymore but if you want to go for a long walk, take an umbrella. It will rain for the whole day.

Boy: Hi, Amy.

Girl: Oh hi, Mark. What's up?

Boy: Well, I'm a bit worried. I have a maths test tomorrow and I think I'll fail it.

Girl: Don't worry. I'm good at maths. Why don't we meet after classes? I'll explain everything to you so that you'll understand.

Boy: Are you sure?

Girl: Of course. I have plenty of time today.

Zadanie 2.

- Girl: John! Guess what! I finally have a dog! My sister brought it from the shelter for me yesterday.
- Boy: Wow, Susie, that's fantastic! Is it a big dog?
- Girl: No, it's a Yorkie so it's really small. It's grey and brown, and it's called Daisy.
- Boy: Oh, Yorkies are sweet. I've heard that they're the best pets if you're allergic to animals.
- Girl: I know. My sister was sneezing all the time and it turned out that she was allergic to cats. Can you imagine that?
- Boy: Oh dear! What happened? Is her cat still with her?
- Girl: No, she doesn't have a cat. My brother has one and she found out she's allergic when she was visiting him. My sister has a fish tank with many colourful fish.
- Boy: I'd like to have such a fish tank...I only have a hamster. I love my hamster but having fish would be great.

Zadanie 3.

Man: So, our museum trip ends here. I hope that you've enjoyed my talk about the city history. I know that it was a bit long, but I think you've liked it. Thanks for all the interesting questions, it's the first time in my career that students have asked me so many! Now you'll have some free time and you can spend it in the lovely museum gardens. The roses are blooming now, so I guess it's a nice place to take some photos. For those of you who aren't interested – the souvenir shop is located opposite the main entrance. You need to hurry up, though, because it closes in 20 minutes.

Zadanie 4.

4.1.

4.2.

Man: Shall we sit in the restaurant garden?

4.3.

Woman: Who's sitting next to you?

4.4.

Man: I'd like to book two seats in the front row, please.
